

49th CIRCUIT COURT PROBATION AND COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS
FOR MECOSTA AND OSCEOLA COUNTIES

The Circuit Court Probation office serves the Circuit Court by preparing Pre-sentence Investigation Reports (“PSIs”) and other Court ordered reports/investigations. When offenders are sentenced to probation, the probation staff supervises the offender’s compliance with his/her respective orders of probation. These include statutory conditions such as reporting as required, and can include other conditions as ordered by the Court.

The Circuit Court Probation office acts as liaison of the Department of Corrections to the Circuit Court, District Court, County Jail, Sheriff's Department, other County agencies, law enforcement, local government, service agencies, and the general public in any situation(s) involving adult felony offenders. Staff persons are paid by the State of Michigan, with all office expenses being provided by the County.¹
