

Video Equipment

- The Circuit Court has video equipment, including two way video between the Court and the jail, available to attorneys who need such equipment for Court hearings. The equipment is reserved on a first-come-first-serve basis by calling this office.